The Department of Electrical and Computer Engineering in the Faculty of Engineering and Applied Science at Queen’s University requests applications from suitably qualified candidates interested in teaching the following undergraduate course in the 2018-19 session.

Qualifications:
Minimum of an M.Sc. (or equivalent industry design experience) in Electrical & Computer Engineering or a related field, expertise in the field relevant to the course, and appropriate teaching experience. Previous educational background and/or experience must be suited to teaching the course described below. Candidates must have excellent communication and presentation skills, as well as be capable of working as a member of a teaching team. Registration as a Professional Engineer, or eligibility to acquire registration in Canada, is an essential qualification. Prior teaching experience in project based engineering courses and lecture-based engineering courses would be a strong asset.

Teaching requirement:

Winter Term Course: January 1, 2019 – April 30, 2019

Anticipated course enrolment: 260

Course Description

ELEC 210 Introductory Electric Circuits and Machines
W 3-0.75-0.5 4.25

An introductory course for engineering students in disciplines other than electrical or computer engineering. The course begins with a review of the concepts of resistance, capacitance, and inductance. Circuit analysis techniques are then applied to characterize the behaviour of commonly used electrical energy conversion devices such as transformers, dc machines, and induction and synchronous machines. (0/0/0/51/0)

PREREQUISITES: APSC 111, APSC 112, APSC 171, APSC 172, APSC 174

The above advertised course will be taught on campus. The successful applicant will have 100 percent responsibility for the course.

Queens University is committed to employment equity and diversity in the workplace and welcomes applications from women, visible minorities, aboriginal people, persons with disabilities, and persons of any sexual orientation or gender identity. All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority. Teaching Fellows at Queen’s University are governed by a collective agreement between Public Service Alliance of Canada (PSAC), http://www.queensu.ca/humanresources/employees/unions.html and Queen's University.

The University will provide support in its recruitment processes to applicants with disabilities, including accommodation that takes into account an applicant’s accessibility needs. If you require accommodation during the interview process, please contact Mary Gillespie, mary.gillespie@queensu.ca.

Applications should include a complete and current curriculum vitae, a statement of teaching experience, the names and contact details of two referees who may be contacted, and any relevant other materials the candidate wishes to submit for consideration. Applications are to be submitted to the ECE Appointments Committee at the address below, or by e-mail to Mary Gillespie, mary.gillespie@queensu.ca. Applications should arrive no later than 12 October 2018.
